GOOLE REGALIA

Councillor Walker read out the correspondence received from the Civic Society. Councillor O'Neil informed Members that she was satisfied with the existing logos. She queried the cost implications saying they could be enormous.

The Town Clerk stated that it was not about changing the logo but more about producing a Coat Of Arms.

Councillor O'Neil PROPOSED keeping the existing Goole Town Council logo.

This was SECONDED by Councillor G Boatman

Councillor Crawford agreed with Councillor O'Neil stating that he was unsure of the rationale behind it.

The Town Clerk informed the Members that it was more about adopting a Town Crest.

Councillor Moore referred to the Civic Society correspondence where in the first sentence they talk about using our logo for their purposes.

The Town Clerk showed examples of existing Crests.

Councillor Crawford suggested inviting the Civic Society to a meeting to discuss this further.

Councillor G Boatman agreed that it should be deferred until a meeting has taken place.

The Town Clerk suggested inviting them to the next policy meeting.

Councillor M Boatman reminded Members that Goole Town Council has its own motto "Truth Conquers All"

Councillor Walker stated that we want to continue using our own motto

Members agreed to defer this item for further information and to invite the Civic Society to a future meeting.

GOOLE TOWN COUNCIL WEBSITE

Councillor Walker informed the Members that the website is now completed and live. He had checked the website and his details have been amended.

Councillor Frost asked whether the Councillors Declarations of Interest are on the website.

The Town Clerk informed the Members that blank Declaration of Interest forms have been emailed to Councillors and that they have not all been returned yet. He stated that he would email Members again.

Councillor Crawford stated that the website was a massive improvement. He asked whether the Agendas and Minutes could be posted on.

The Town Clerk replied that all the Minutes from January have been scanned in, the Agendas need uploading to the website prior to meetings.

Councillor Crawford asked whether Councillors mobile phone numbers and photographs would be on the website.

Councillor Huntington advised Members to look at the link page. Friends of Oak Hill website is excellent but there is no link to 'I Love Goole'. This link was on the old website.

The Town Clerk advised that there was no link as the organization is not promoting itself. It has been reviewed and is not active.

Councillor Moore stated that Goole is rich in Social Enterprise and queried whether there should be a link to these.

Councillor Huntington asked when the Agenda would be on the website

The Town Clerk advised that the Agenda would be on at least three days prior to the meeting.

Councillor Huntington asked whether the accompanying paperwork would be on there.

The Town Clerk replied that it was not practical to do this.

The Full Council meeting concluded at 7.21pm.
